

Calling 911

Write down your address here:

Dial 9-1-1.

Wait for the operator to answer.

Tell the operator what the emergency is. If you don't speak English, say "HELP!"

Stay on the line. Don't hang up even if you don't understand.

Tell the operator where to send help, if you can.

Wait for help to come.

PROVIDED BY:

Goldsboro Police Department
P O Drawer A
Goldsboro, N.C. 27533
(919) 736-4933
Crime Prevention Division

and

THE NORTH CAROLINA
DEPARTMENT OF CRIME CONTROL AND
PUBLIC SAFETY

GOVERNOR'S CRIME COMMISSION
CRIME PREVENTION UNIT
1201 FRONT STREET, SUITE 200
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA 27609

(919) 733-4564

Call for more information or assistance.

WWW.GCC.STATE.NC.US

Written and developed by:
Thomas A. Arcury, Ph.D., Wake Forest University,
Department of Family & Community Medicine
and
Rebecca Simore, MPH
The Center for Urban & Regional Studies
UNC Chapel Hill

How to Call 911

Call 911 in an Emergency!

When Should I Call 911?

Whenever you need help in an emergency, you should call 911.

You can call 911 to get help from the police, the fire department, or to get an ambulance.

If you are the victim of a crime, you should always report it to the police.

You can also call the police to report any suspicious activity you are concerned about.

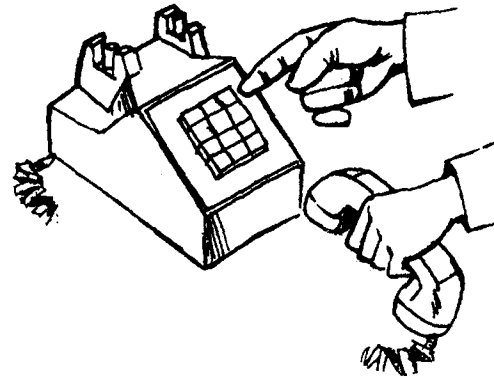

How do I Call 911?

You can call 911 from any telephone.

The call is free from any payphone.

If you have time, take note of where you are so you can tell the operator your exact location. That way, the police will be able to help you more quickly.

To call 911, pick up the phone receiver and dial "9-1-1."

What Happens When I Call?

When you call 911, an operator will answer to ask you what your emergency is.

If you do not speak English, say "HELP!" (pronounced ¡JELP!).

DO NOT HANG UP. Stay on the line. Sometimes there will be a short delay when the operator gets someone who speaks Spanish to help you.

Tell the operator where to send help, if you can. If you don't understand the operator, don't hang up. Just stay on the line until help comes.